Interpreter

Acquascutum, Corby (England)

I worked as an interpreter for several years at the "Acquascutum" company in Corby, England. As an interpreter I had to take part in commercial transactions and meetings all over Europe, especially in countries like: France, Germany, Norway, Scotland and Ireland. I also had the responsibility to cope with the commercial transactions of Import/Export between England and Asia.

EFL Teacher

Private lessons, Individuals and Groups, Nola (Italy)

Since I graduated from 'Cambridge University' back in 1985, I worked as a teacher both in England and Italy, for over twenty years. I worked with different levels, from beginners to C2 levels. While working as a teacher I also translated and worked as an interpreter for Import/Export private companies located in Naples, Pompei and Milan.

10/2006

English language teacher

Public schools, Naples (Italy)

I started working in a public schools over ten years ago. The experience has been lovely, as I've been working with different levels of students, in classes where the number of students was between 20 and 27. I've also prepared students for the "Trinity" and "Cambridge" exams. The schools I taught for were in Ottaviano, Pomigliano D'Arco, Nola and Cercola, in the province of Naples.

I am currently working on a 30 hours per week project in a Primary School based in Ottaviano (Mimmo Beneventano) called "English is fun". There I am dealing with students aged from 3 to 10 years old.

09/2016–Present

EFL Teacher

British School, Naples (Italy)

After having spent many years working between public schools, companies and private lessons, I decided to expand my horizons and look for a better placement for my own career and self improvement. In September 2016 I started a collaboration with 'British School' in Naples. I have been working with a different range of students, from Children to Juniors but also from Teenagers to Adults, dealing with both individual and group classes. I have also taught in several public schools, the last one was 'Liceo Salvatore di Giacomo' situated in San Sebastiano, but also at 'Scuola d'infanzia, Primaria e Secondaria 'Mimmo Beneventano' in Ottaviano (NA).

The levels I have prepared are: Ket, Pet, Fce and Cae.

As a result I lived in the UK for over ten years, attending university in Cambridge where I studied foreign languages and literature. The experience resulted in one of the best choices of my life, a brilliant experience that I always suggest to my students. After attending University, I worked for a brief period at the "Tresham

Communication skills

Good communication skills gained through my experiences as an EFL teacher across England and Italy, dealing with a different range of students and colleagues.
Excellent contact skills with children, juniors and teenagers, gained while working in public and private schools.

Organisational / managerial skills

I am a very 'Easy Going' teacher. I always try to communicate with my students while setting some rules. I make sure that I have activities planned for my class to do rather than just passively listening to the students: it keeps students' interest.
